

HOSTEL EMERGENCY & SAFETY REGULATIONS

These safety regulations ensure the well-being of occupants. Failure to follow emergency protocols places responsibility on the occupant, and the hostel shall not be liable for personal losses.

1. During fire or earthquake, immediate evacuation is mandatory. Failure may lead to disciplinary action.
2. Hostel is not responsible for personal belongings lost during emergencies.
3. Occupants must comply with all safety drills and evacuation orders.

The Lessee acknowledges that personal safety is their responsibility during emergencies, and the hostel bears no liability.
